To whom it may concern

I have worked with Mark Errichiello for several years and have always found him to be professional, prompt and very client-focused.

I regularly recommend Mark's services to my clients and always receive excellent feedback about their experience.

Buying property can often be a daunting experience and clients get real peace of mind knowing that Mark has the technical skills, experience and their best interests at heart. Being able to hand over the searching and negotiating responsibility really frees up their time so they can concentrate on the other elements of the property process.

Mark is very receptive to client's often-changing needs and can adapt easily. As well as being able to handle the transactional elements with ease, Mark can provide real advice and guidance on trends and market opportunities.

I will continue to recommend Mark's business to my clients.
