

Directions from Deputy Chief Health Officer (Communicable Disease) in accordance with emergency powers arising from declared state of emergency

Stay at Home Directions (No 6)

Public Health and Wellbeing Act 2008 (Vic)

Section 200

I, Dr Annaliese van Diemen, Deputy Chief Health Officer (Communicable Disease), consider it reasonably necessary to protect public health to give the following directions pursuant to section 200(1)(b) and (d) of the Public Health and Wellbeing Act 2008 (Vic) (PHW Act):

PART 1 — PRELIMINARY

1 Preamble

- (1) The purpose of these directions is to address the serious public health risk posed to Victoria by Novel Coronavirus 2019 (2019-nCoV).
- (2) These directions require everyone in Victoria to limit their interactions with others by:
 - (a) restricting the circumstances in which they may leave the premises where they ordinarily reside; and
 - (b) placing restrictions on gatherings.
- (3) These directions must be read together with the Restricted Activity Directions (No 7), the Diagnosed Persons and Close Contacts Directions, the Hospital Visitor Directions (No 3) and the Care Facilities Directions (No 3).
- (4) These directions replace the Stay at Home Directions (No 5), and, amongst other things:
 - (a) permit a group of up to 5 people to visit another person's home;
 - (b) permit a group of up to 10 people to gather in an open public place;
 - (c) allow people to leave their homes for wellbeing purposes, including recreation and exercise; and
 - (d) increase the number of people that can attend a wedding or funeral.

2 Citation

- (1) These directions may be referred to as the Stay at Home Directions (No 6).
- (2) A reference in any other direction to the Stay at Home Directions (No 5) is taken to be a reference to these directions.

3 Revocation

The Stay at Home Directions (No 5) are revoked with effect from 11.59.00pm on 12 May 2020.

4 Stay at home period

For the purposes of these directions, the stay at home period is the period beginning at 11.59.00pm on 12 May 2020 and ending at 11.59.00pm on 31 May 2020.

PART 2 — STAY AT HOME

5 Direction — stay at home other than in specified circumstances

Requirement to stay at home

- (1) A person who is in Victoria during the stay at home period must not leave the premises where the person ordinarily resides, other than for one or more of the reasons specified in:
 - (a) clause 6 (necessary goods or services);
 - (b) clause 7 (care or other compassionate reasons);
 - (c) clause 8 (work or education);
 - (d) clause 9 (exercise or recreation);
 - (e) clause 9A (visiting family or friends); or
 - (f) clause 10 (other specified reasons).

Note 1: a person may have more than one ordinary place of residence and, if so, is able to move freely between those places: see subclause (5) and clause 10(1)(i).

Note 2: a person may leave the premises at which they ordinarily reside using transport (public or private) to access a place for a permitted purpose, regardless of how many people are on the tram, train, or bus. A group of people from the same premises, or people from different premises, may travel together in a car to a place for a permitted purpose, subject to the restrictions on gatherings in clause 11.

Ordinary place of residence

- (2) Subject to subclause (3), subclause (1) does not apply to a person at any time during the stay at home period when the person:
 - (a) does not have an ordinary place of residence; or
 - (b) has an ordinary place of residence, but that place is temporarily unavailable or is unavailable because of a risk of harm (including harm relating to family violence or violence of another person at the premises).
- (3) If a suitable premises is made available for a person identified in subclause (2) to reside at for the stay at home period (or part thereof):
 - (a) that premises is taken to be the person's ordinary place of residence for the period (or part thereof); and
 - (b) subclause (1) applies accordingly.
- (4) If a person ordinarily resides outside Victoria, the premises where that person is temporarily residing in Victoria during the stay at home period (or part thereof) is taken to be the person's ordinary place of residence for the period (or part thereof).
- (5) If a person has more than one premises at which they ordinarily reside, including a child under a shared parenting arrangement, each such premises is taken to be the person's ordinary place of residence for the stay at home period.

Examples: a person works in the city during the week and resides at one premises during that time, but returns to a different premises at the weekend; a child who lives at different premises under a shared parenting arrangement.
- (6) If, during the stay at home period, a person moves from the premises at which they ordinarily reside to a new premises, the new premises is taken to be the premises at which the person ordinarily resides from midnight on the day that the person moves.

PART 3 — REASONS TO LEAVE PREMISES

6 Leaving premises to obtain necessary goods or services

- (1) A person may leave the premises to obtain:
 - (a) food or drink;
 - (b) goods and services for health or medical purposes; or
 - (c) other goods or services that the person believes are necessary including, but not limited to, goods or services provided by:
 - (i) a financial institution;

- (ii) a government body or government agency;
 - (iii) a post office;
 - (iv) a pharmacy;
 - (v) a hardware store;
 - (vi) a petrol station;
 - (vii) a pet store or veterinary clinic; or
 - (viii) an open retail facility.
- (2) A person may leave the premises for purposes relating to, or associated with, dealing in residential property.

Example: a person may leave their premises to attend an inspection or auction conducted in accordance with the Restricted Activity Directions (No 7). This can be for rental or sales of property.

7 Leaving premises for care or other compassionate reasons

- (1) A person may leave the premises:
- (a) to meet obligations in relation to shared parenting arrangements, whether the arrangements are under a court order or otherwise;
 - (b) if the person is a parent or guardian of a child:
 - (i) to visit the child if the child is in detention, or in the care of another person;
 - (ii) to meet any obligations in relation to care and support for that child;
 - (iii) to take the child to:
 - (A) another person's premises for the purpose of that other person providing child-minding assistance (whether on a paid or voluntary basis); or
 - (B) a childcare facility or an early childhood educational facility;so that the parent or guardian can:
 - (C) do one of the things specified in clauses 6 (necessary goods or services), 7 (care), 8 (work or education), 9 (exercise or recreation), 9A (visiting family or friends) or 10 (other specified reasons); or
 - (D) work, or obtain educational services, from their own premises;

- (c) to provide childcare, early childhood education or schooling to a child or young person, including a child or young person who is vulnerable because the child or young person:
 - (i) resides in the care of the State; or
 - (ii) is deemed vulnerable by a government agency, or funded family or family violence service, and is assessed as requiring education and care outside the family home;
- (d) to provide care and support to a relative or other person:
 - (i) who has particular needs because of age, infirmity, disability, illness or a chronic health condition; or
 - (ii) because of matters relating to the relative or other person's health (including mental health or pregnancy);
- (e) to attend a care facility if that attendance is not prohibited by the Care Facilities Directions (No 3), including for a care and support visit;
- (f) to attend a hospital if that attendance is not prohibited by the Hospital Visitor Directions (No 3), including for a care and support visit;
- (g) to attend a funeral or wedding, if that funeral or wedding complies with the requirements in clause 11;
- (h) to donate blood;
- (i) to escape harm or the risk of harm, including harm relating to family violence or violence of another person at the premises;
- (j) visit a person with whom they are in an intimate personal relationship;
- (k) to provide child-minding assistance (whether on a paid or voluntary basis), so that the parent or guardian of a child can:
 - (i) leave their own premises for one of the purposes specified in clauses 6 (necessary goods or services), 7 (care), 8 (work or education), 9 (exercise or recreation), 9A (visiting family or friends) or 10 (other specified reasons); or
 - (ii) work, or obtain educational services, from their own premises; or
- (l) to visit a cemetery.

8 Leaving premises to attend work or education

- (1) Subject to subclause (2), a person may leave the premises to:
 - (a) attend work (whether paid or voluntary, including for charitable or religious purposes); or
 - (b) obtain educational services; or

 - (d) using credit secured against the property;
- (6) density quotient of a single undivided indoor space is the number calculated by dividing the total area of the space (measured in square metres) by 4;

Note: If an indoor space is 8.5 metres long and 4.5 metres wide, its total area is 38.25 square metres. Its density quotient is 9.56, so no more than 9 people would be permitted to be in the indoor space at one time.

- (7) Direction and Detention Notice means a notice given to a person who has arrived in Victoria from overseas, requiring the person to be detained for a specified period;
- (8) hospital has the same meaning as in the Hospital Visitor Directions (No 3);
- (9) indoor space means an area, room or premises that is or are substantially enclosed by a roof and walls, regardless of whether the roof or walls or any part of them are:
 - (a) permanent or temporary; or
 - (b) open or closed;
- (10) interest, in relation to residential property, means:
 - (a) a legal or equitable estate or interest in the property; or
 - (b) a right, power or privilege over, or in connection with, the property;
- (11) national security has the meaning that security has in the Australian Security Intelligence Organisation Act 1979 of the Commonwealth;
- (12) open retail facility has the same meaning as Restricted Activity Directions (No 7);
- (13) outdoor space has the same meaning as in the Restricted Activity Directions (No 7);
- (14) patient has the same meaning as in the Hospital Visitor Directions (No 3);
- (15) pharmacy has the same meaning as in the Pharmacy Regulation Act 2010;
- (16) place of worship has the same meaning as in the Restricted Activity Directions (No 7);
- (17) premises means:
 - (a) a building, or part of a building; and
 - (b) any land on which the building is located, other than land that is available for communal use;
- (18) residential property has the same meaning as in the Estate Agents Act 1980; and
- (19) vehicle has the same meaning as in the PHW Act.

14 Penalties

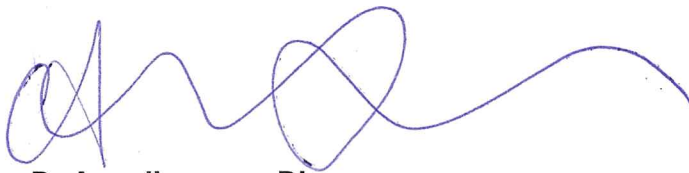

Section 203 of the PHW Act provides:

Compliance with direction or other requirement

- (1) A person must not refuse or fail to comply with a direction given to the person, or a requirement made of the person, in the exercise of a power under an authorisation given under section 199.

Penalty: In the case of a natural person, 120 penalty units.
 In the case of a body corporate, 600 penalty units.

- (2) A person is not guilty of an offence against subsection (1) if the person had a reasonable excuse for refusing or failing to comply with the direction or requirement.
